It now turns out that all hands were drunk the night that they had that famous baccarat game at Tanby Croft.

Yesterday the winners in the China lottery were celebrating their good fortune. Where, by the way, is that lottery law?

Fruit before breakfast is always considered the correct thing, watermelon for instance, and Chedie is the man who sells them cheap.

Zinn stated to a Carson miner that inside of three months he would take gold out of the ground around his claim by the bucket full.

The San Francisco Chronicle made no objection to the lack of citizenship on the part of Col. Forsythe, but is decidedly disgusted at the lack of it in Barclay Henley.

There is a Chinaman in San Francisco who has maintained an upright position for the past twenty years and it is not probable that he will lie down until he dies. He sits upon an old stool day and night.

Rev. T. L. Bradley and wife are at the St. Charles Hotel. The gentleman has been transferred as pastor of the Coleville, Mono county, church to Bodie where he will soon enter upon his duties.

The Silver State speaks of the "Pine Nut fake." If fifteen sacks of ore averaging $1,000 a sack is designated a fake we would like to know what people consider a mine out in Humboldt county?

Among the States showing an increase in the valuation of real and personal property, according to the Census Bureau, are the following: California, $486,520,000; Idaho, $19,140,000; Montana, $87,874,000; Nevada, $4,628,000; Utah, $79,983,000; Washington, $100,925,000; Oregon, $113,504,000.

Hawthorne Bulletin: It is the belief of our baseball cranks that Esmeralda can produce the best club in the State. If the Carson or Virginia clubs will give or take expenses and play for a purse of $400 or $500, perhaps a game can be made. We are from the country, but sometimes we play ball a little.

Nevada Lands the Best.

In yesterday's APPEAL was a paragraph to the effect that Mr. Ashby of Beatrice, Nebraska, had purchased a large ranch in Smith's Valley and was on his way to stock it with thoroughbred horses and cattle.

Yesterday in conversation with the writer he stated that he had gone to California looking for an investment and after carefully examining various sections of California had determined to make some investigation of Nevada land. He said: "I was turned away from California by the high price of land, the cremating climate and the low figures which almost every farm produce commands. I found in Smith Valley in your State exactly what I wanted; cheap land, extraordinary soil, a dry, beautiful climate and, in fact, everything that a man in my business could ask for. The State ought to be the best stock raising country in the world. I am astonished that its advantages are not better known. People in the East regard it as a desert of sand and sagebrush, but I don't so find it."

"Some day you fellows will wake up and realize what you have here in the way of soil and climate."

SHOCKED THE OFFICERS.

A Woman Runs a Bold Bluff at the Law.

The case wherein a number of Carson's roaring bluffs were tried for disturbing the quiet of a palace of sin, developed some ludicrous incidents.

One of the witnesses, Miss —, declined to appear in Court, as she feared to meet the stern gaze of the aged Justice in the Courtroom.

Officer Grey was sent to her abode with a bench warrant and still the bashful woman declined to obey the law.

"It will be my duty to take you by force," said the officer, "as the laws of Judge Hawthorne's Court are not framed for the idle jest of the scoffer or the airy pastime of the wicked."

"You just want me, I s'pose." "That's all, Madame. This document says I must bring your body into Court."

"Please read it again."

The officer, who is a fine elocutionist, read the impressive language of the writ again as if he had been rolling out the burial service.

"Yes, jesso. It says nothing about my clothes."

"Don't appear to."

"All right then," said the woman as she coolly began to disrobe.

The officer entered a protest, but it availed not, and in a few moments she was as undressed as any of the plaster casts on Sutro Heights.

"Now I'm ready to go."

The officer folded up the writ and returned to the Court where he reported the state of affairs to the proper authorities.

Sheriff Bottsford came to the rescue and was ordered by the Court to bring in the unwilling witness clothes or no clothes, and so when she found that they meant business she dressed herself with great taste and care and came along with her official escorts.

Decency Outraged.

There is a general feeling in this community that it is time the tough element in this town should receive a decided set back or the whole city will presently be in their hands. It seems impossible to any longer convict anybody of anything in Carson, who are made any part of the machinery of the law seem to be influenced by fear or favoritism.

A few months ago the APPEAL stated that there was one law for the rich and another for the poor, but it begins to look as if there was no law that could reach anybody.

The acquittal of the men who smashed in the door of Miss Taylor's house and the dismissal of the indictment in the Davis rape case, has caused a general feeling of indignation throughout the city.

Special pains were taken in the Taylor case to pick a jury of good, responsible citizens but on the plainest of testimony they gave a verdict that licenses anybody to enter the house of a woman of the town by smashing in the door and demolishing the furniture.

A woman of that class has the same legal right as anybody.

In the Davis case a Grand Jury of leading citizens on the most positive testimony found an indictment and the District Attorney asks for a dismissal on the ground that the testimony was insufficient to convict.

A Grand Juror said to the writer yesterday: "We were astonished to learn that the case had been dismissed. The girl testified positively to three separate assaults at three different times and we propose to submit the testimony to Judge Rising and find out whether an indictment made on such evidence, corroborated by plenty of other evidence, should be so summarily disposed of. We are not yet through with that case."

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS

Sacramento wants a zoo.

An old German named Fritz has been found murdered at Princeton, Glenn county, Cal.

Five persons made good their escape from the New Whatcom, Wash., prison Tuesday night.

The sloop Nada has been seized at Vancouver, B. C., for violation of the custom laws and will be sold at public auction.

The hop yards in Sacramento and Yolo counties will not produce more than half a crop. This peculiar change has come about in the past ten days.

The glut of potatoes in Southern California continues. In one section they are being offered at 5c a sack in the ground, the buyer to dig them.

Rev. C. F. Wood of the Congregational Church at Tulare has raised a breeze of excitement owing to his writing love letters to a girl of fifteen years.

The large, modern, fine ore furnace at the Great Western quicksilver mine, near Middletown, Lake county, California was burned yesterday. It was nearly new and cost about $30,000 to erect.

The fire which raged in the mountain west of Sebastopol for several days last week, burned the railroad bridge on the narrow-gauge and a large amount of valuable timber, posts, pickets, etc.

To Cool a Bedroom.

If the sleeping room is warm, it may be cooled for a time by wringing large pieces of cotton out of water and hanging them before the open windows, says The Ladies' Home Journal. Leave the door open, and as the air comes through the wet cotton it will be cooled. This is a good device for cooling a sick-room; the clothes can be wet again and again. Keep the gas turned low during the process of dressing, and sleep without a light, unless it is a tiny night lamp.

Preparing for Another Cleanup.

The Republican says five of the residents of Main street in Truckee have been arrested for keeping or living in notorious houses. It also says that bits of red ribbon were found attached to awning posts along Front street the other morning which is supposed to be a hint from the 601 for the loafers and vags to get out of town. There are a number here who should heed the summons without delay. They have made the town obnoxious by their presence long enough.

Nevada Beets.

The Kaupisch Bros. who are about starting a creamery in the Carson Valley, have sent a ton of sugar beets to the Spreckles' sugar refinery in San Francisco for analysis. They have received word that the beets contain more saccharine matter than any yet tested at the refinery. Sugar beets can be raised in alkali soil without irrigation in this State.

Sickness Among Children.

Especially infants, is prevalent more or less at all times, but is largely avoided by giving proper nourishment and wholesome food. The most successful and reliable of all is the Gail Borden "Eagle" Brand Condensed Milk. Your grocer and druggist keep it. 2t

False Economy

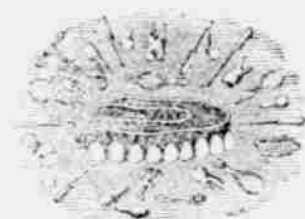

Is practiced by many people, who buy inferior articles of food because cheaper than standard goods. Surely infants are entitled to the best food obtainable. It is a fact that the Gail Borden "Eagle" Brand Condensed Milk is the best infant food. Your grocer and druggist keep it. 2t
